Novi Sad and Rakovac winemakers, wineries and wine shops

Sremska Kamenica – Ledinci – Rakovac – Begeč – Kovilj

It may be unusual for contemporaries to claim that an urban, highly populated Novi Sad has winemakers and winegrowers within the city perimeters. Historiography records that in the first half of the 18th century, the inhabitants of the town, which was then called Petrovaradinski Šanac, had around three hundred vineyards on the Srem, Fruška Gora side of the Danube. The phenomenon was so widespread that almost every middle-class family had its own vineyard. The need for wine production was so great that those inhabitants of Petrovaradinski Šanac who cultivated the vineyards on the monastery estates agreed to high levies - a tithe and a hoe fees (one hoe was about 1000 m2) only to have a vineyard. Contemporary Novi Sad winegrowers and winemakers are the heirs not only of that viticultural skill, but also of the passion associated with grapes and wine.

Nowadays, the wine route of Novi Sad stretch on both the Bačka and Srem sides of the city. On the Bačka side, there are wineries in Kovilj and the nearby municipal centre of Temerin, while in the city centre, numerous wine shops suggest to visitors that they are in an area known as par excellence wine region.

As soon as you cross from the Bačka part of Novi Sad to the Srem side in Sremska Kamenica, Ledinci and Rakovac, you can visit several Novi Sad winemakers, taste their wines and hear stories about the winemaking tradition that have been kept as bequests for generations. Contemporary grape assortment is a part of tradition for the production of white Fruška Gora wines: Italian Riesling, Chardonnay, Župljanka, Sauvignon, Traminac, Neoplanta, Sila, Rhine Riesling, etc. Red wines are made of Merlot, Probus, Frankovka, Portuguiser, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Pinot Noir, etc.

Novi Sad on the Bačka side

Along the main tourist routes in Novi Sad, there are numerous wine shops and wine stores where you can ask for an advice on choosing wine, and then buy Fruška Gora and wines from other regions. As a rule, these are pleasant places that fans of this drink of the gods gladly visit. In the very center of the city there are Winery Naša vina, Winery Vina Vojvodina, winery VINO i tako to, The Box shop, Krivina, while in the wider city center there are VINO and Vinili Wine Shop, Korpa Deli Market and Bistro and M-S Hermes. Although you can also find wines of Fruška Gora in the listed wine shops, winemakers from Sremski Karlovci, Rakovac and other places have their own shops such as Dulka Vinoteka and Kantina vina winery.

For further information visit novisad.travel/en/wineries/

Novi Sad hosts important international wine fair Interfest (June). Fruška Gora winemakers, but also those from other wine areas, have the opportunity to sell their wines and other products during numerous events that take place outdoors in the city.

wooden tables and paintings of our famous painters call for a warm and exciting experience. Behind the wide door there is the wine cellar arranged for wine tasting and purchase.

Salaxia Winery (Vinarija Salaxia) is a family story created at a place where viticulture has driven life for centuries. This winery, owned by the family Tadić, just as many other Fruška Gora wineries, inherited not only the tradition but also the idea that wine included not merely the properties of the area it was grown at, but also the soul and heart of the winemaker who created it. Part of the vineyard of this wine house is located in Rakovac, in the immediate vicinity of the winery, and since the 2022 harvest has organic status. Two white wines, Plana and Galaxia, come from this vineyard, located in extreme conditions.

The assortment of grapes consists of: Pinot Gris, Chardonnay, Rhine Riesling, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Vranac. They offer red and white wine Bela vrana, as well as Burlesque and Burlesque Noir rosé and white wines.

The wines of Salaxia Winery are the product of the owner's life philosophy turned to the noble ideal of creating the mystery of wine with love and creative energy, which, only in the experience of the drinker, takes shape, measure and emotion. Everything here is subordinated to hedonistic beauty that defies everyday life and transience. Food that is served - mushrooms, goat cheeses, meat, snails, organic vegetables, and spice herbs, come to the table from the immediate surroundings.

The tasting room, the garden that directly places visitors in the shade of the Fruška Gora forest beauty, and the wine shop are parts of a complete system for the scheduled groups of visitors and an individual visitor that celebrates wine and loves visitors.

Tourist attractions in the vicinity of the wineries

When you cross the Danube in Novi Sad, from Bačka to the Srem side, it will be quite clear that you are in SREMSKA KAMENICA, on the side of the city that begins and ends with the slopes of Fruška Gora, which suggest an exciting encounter with nature and wines. If you wish to distance yourself from the urban community you can start your excursion by walking along Sremska Kamenica and visiting the Serbian Orthodox Church of Holly Mother's Birth (1758) and Roman Catholic Church of Discovery of the Holly Cross (1811), both in the centre, or Zmaj's Museum, or by taking a break at Kamenički Park and tasting an excellent fish soup in Čarda Sremac.

If you decide to go from Sremska Kamenica deeper into the Fruška Gora landscape in the desire to continue to get to know Fruška Gora wines, the road will take you to LEDINCI. Stari Ledinci is a place with a turbulent history. The village was burned in 1942 and then rebuilt for decades. Traces of history are two fountains in Stari Ledinci with carved years of 1842 and 1885, as well as the remains of a medieval church in the settlement of Klisa, which some researchers believe is the missing monastery of St. Sava that is mentioned in the 16th century. For lovers of walking, the path to the lookout point above the Ledinci Lake leads via the Zvečan spring. You can also choose other paths for a walk towards Pera's Cave or towards the Popovica and Orlovo Bojište picnic sites. Fans of gastronomic pleasures will not miss to visit the Stojadinović-Pintar Family Farm (Naša farma kozica) in Stari Ledinci. You should not miss the gastronomic pleasure, which includes Fruška Gora wines at the Vidikovac Restaurant, which offers a panoramic view of Novi Sad.

RAKOVAC is not a unique settlement. Stari Rakovac, where the serfs of the Rakovac monastery estate used to live, was burned down in 1942. The memorials of the People's Liberation Movement, Stručica and Kamenolom, and the Monument to the fighters who were killed during the armed struggle at the same location talk about the suffering of the settlement and its residents during the World War II, as well as about a strong antifascist tradition of the Rakovac residents. On the southern edge of the settlement there are the remains of the archaeological site Gradina - Dumbovo. In the Roman period, there was a villa rustica there on the northern border of the empire built on the layers from the older Iron Age. Picnic goers, visitors, especially participants of pilgrimage journeys will not miss the opportunity to visit the Serbian Orthodox Monastery Rakovac from 1545. Nature lovers can visit the picnic area and the Zmajevac lookout adorned with forest communities of oak, beech and hornbeam. From the lookout point you can see the Vrdnik Tower and the spa-tourist settlement Vrdnik, while in nice weather you can also see the lower Srem.

KOVI LJ is an old Bačka settlement that was divided into Upper Kovi lj and Lower Kovi lj by the middle of the 18th century so that it has two churches in the same street. The Serbian Orthodox Church of the Lord's Ascension (Upper Kovi lj Church) was built in 1829 while Serbian Orthodox Church of St. Thomas the Apostle (Lower Kovi lj Church) was built in 1845, at the site of the older temple. The birth house of Laza Kostić, one of the greatest Serbian poets, writers and translators is located adjacent to the Upper Kovi lj Church. In the park across the street there is a monument dedicated to Kovi lj volunteers from the World War I. Only a few hundred meters from the Lower Kovi lj Church, there is the Kovi lj Museum that keeps historical, ethnographic and artistic items documenting the life of the inhabitants of Kovi lj for several centuries. The Holy Archangels Monastery, which was, according to the legend, founded by St. Sava although it was first mentioned by the middle of the 17th century, is another attraction of Kovi lj. The tourist offer is additionally complemented by the Wine Cellar Do kraja sveta, programmes of the Eco-Centre Kovi lj of the Public Company "Vojvodina šume", Sava Graorac Agricultural Estate known after breeding of mangulica pigs, and Ethno Restaurant "Na kraj sveta" located at Arkanj.

BEGEČ is a Novi Sad Danube settlement with houses arranged in typical Vojvodina manner, which is dominated by the Church of the Holy Apostle Luka with a remarkable bell tower from the first half of the 19th century. There is an artesian well in the settlement, once a common occurrence in places in Vojvodina, and more and more the life necessity and tourist attraction of the modern ages. Traces of history within the Begeč area are significant, but they are not prepared for tourist visits. This primarily refers to the remains of a Roman fortification with a port (Castellum Onagrinum) built at the end of the 3rd century and necropolises and graves from the time of the migration of the people. The modern settlement has significant tourist attractions that are an integral part of the tourist offer of the Novi Sad area. These are: "Begečka jama" Nature Park, farmstead "Cvej in salaš" and chardas: "Čarda kod Braše" and "Čarda na Jami".

Pilgrimage for hedonists and their friends

Fruška Gora area is a mythical terrain that unifies picturesque landscapes, sentimentality for tradition and baroque celebration of life, all along the wine routes threaded of vineyards, wineries and families of winemakers proud of wines they greet their guests with.

It is not difficult to choose the route. You should visit all six wine routes because each that follows offers specific and unique experiences.

“Wines of the Ornate Srem” (Beočin-Čerević-Banoštor) is the wine route that follows the course of the Danube and brings the offer of around twenty wineries and wine cellars, including: Prekogačić Winery, Žabić Wine Cellar, Verkat Winery, Belo Brdo Winery, Ačanski Wine Cellar, Fruška Gora Vineyards, Akademia Modele d.o.o., Urošević Vineyards Winery, Stojković Wine Cellar, Vinarium Winery and Šijački Winery. If it is correct that a true winemaker makes wine by inhaling the life enthusiasm and happiness he/she absorbs from small things and big family events, the wines of the ornate Srem can be considered joy poured into bottles.

“Sremski Karlovci - the Wine Galaxy” is a wine route accommodated in a small town that used to be the centre of Serbian spiritual, cultural and political life during the past centuries. Today, the Karlovci wines bring glory and significant income to its winemakers and wineries some of which are Bajilo Wine Cellar, Benišek-Veselinović Winery, Došen

Winery, Dulka Winery, Đurđić Winery, Kiš Winery, MK Kosović Family Winery, Kurjak Winery, Mrđanin Winery, Petrović Wine Cellar, Probus Wine Cellar, Vinum Winery. Museum of Beekeeping - Wine House Živanović owns a kind of excellence that merges the enjoyment in wines and knowledge of winemaking and beekeeping tradition.

“Vineyards Embraced by the Danube, overlooking the Tisza” (Stari and Novi Slankamen–Slankamen Vineyards–Krčedin–Indija) is a route of beauty, where nature inspires and enriches the wine enjoyments. The layers of history, vineyards, orchards, loess plateaus, and sandy river islands make and intimate expressiveness the most powerful colour of which is wine and the following wineries represent the most pleasant experience: Acumincum Winery, Spasić Manufacture, Aven Winery, Macura Produkt Wine Production, Patkov’s Vineyard Winery and Stojanović Winery.

“Following the Trail of the Odeskalki Noble Family” (Susek–Neštin–Šid–Erdevik–Bikić Do) is the route that connects searching for a myth and truth about the Italian noble family Odeskalki. This may be an inspirational experiment that, on the one hand, announces the Odeskalki’s heritage and, on the other hand, offers a credibility of high quality, and authentic wines in the following wineries: Dudan Winery, Gaston Wine Winery, Tri međe i oblak Winery, Wine Cellar Danguba Winery, Molovin Winery, Trivanović Winery, Erdevik Winery, Salaš Farmstead - Wine House Brestovački, Vinat Winery and Ilić-Nijemčević Winery.

“Wine Stories from Irig” (Irig-Mala Remeta-Rivica-Neradin) make a hedonist literature not only because of Fruška Gora monasteries, spa, lake, “salaš” farmsteads and ethno villages but primarily because of wines and wineries of Iriški venac. Irig, Mala Remeta, Rivica, and Neradin are the wine centres where the tradition of grapevine growing and making of wines that dispose with all the properties of Fruška Gora terroir is cherished. A visitor may easily read this beauty in each wine sip. The glory of Fruška Gora wines is currently preserved by Kovačević Winery, Krstašica Winery, Mačkov Podrum Winery, Deurić Winery, Komuna Winery, Odrovački Winery and Tadić Winery.
